

National Chengchi University Rules for the Implementation of Foreign Language Continuing Education Courses by the Foreign Language Center

Approved by 2006 Academic Year 1st Semester 2nd Academic Affairs Meeting on December 25, 2006

Revision approved by 143rd University Affairs Meeting on April 28, 2007

Confirmed by 144th University Affairs Meeting on June 21, 2007

Approved by 2008 Academic Year 2nd Semester 2nd Academic Affairs Meeting on June 8, 2009

- Article1 The Rules for the Implementation of Foreign Language Continuing Education Courses by the Foreign Language Center are established in accordance with the implementation of the Guidelines for Foreign Language Graduation Standard Assessment and to strengthen the foreign language skills of the school's students.
- Article2 These rules apply to all College of Foreign Languages students admitted from the 2004 academic year and general university students admitted from the 2005 academic year that did not pass the school's foreign language skills assessment standards according to the Guidelines for Foreign Language Graduation Standard Assessment. Those that did not pass the assessment standards should take their record of results to the department office to register for continuing education course.
- Article3 Foreign language continuing education courses are established by the Foreign Language Center. They last one semester, receive zero academic credits, and are held for two hours per week. Students who take these courses must pay the tuition fee, with the fee charged according to the academic credit tuition fee standards of the College of Foreign Languages.
- Article4 Those that take these courses and receive a passing grade are deemed as passing the school's foreign language skill graduation standard, according to Article 8 of the school's Guidelines for Foreign Language Graduation Standard Assessment.
- Article5 If there is any matter for which these rules do not stipulate, the school's Guidelines for Foreign Language Graduation Standard Assessment and the relevant regulations shall be followed.
- Article6 These rules are to be implemented upon approval of the College of Foreign Languages College Affairs Meeting and the Academic Affairs Meeting. Revisions are to proceed likewise.